

THE AVENDRA STORY

Serving Private Clubs

Founded in 2001 by some of North America's most successful hospitality organizations, Avendra has grown to become the leading hospitality and club procurement services provider in North America.

More than a means for increasing your purchasing power, Avendra is a trusted partner with deep industry and contracting expertise, resources and innovative purchasing programs to help optimize your procurement operations.

Whether we are negotiating best-in-class contracts or partnering with suppliers to provide exclusive products and services to cover your entire club, we evaluate everything through the eyes of your unique and discerning members.

From the finest cuts of meat to agronomy needs, our suppliers provide the quality products and services to keep your club operating optimally, reducing costs without sacrificing quality and increasing your member experience.
